PRESS RELEASE

ARVAL HAS REACHED ONE MILLION LEASED VEHICLES IN THE WORLD

Arval, BNP Paribas subsidiary dedicated to full service vehicle leasing, has reached the one million threshold, across the 28 countries where it operates.

As end of 2015, Arval's total leased fleet was of 949,000 vehicles, including those of GE Fleet Services, acquired by Arval in November 2015.

Arval now leases one million vehicles to its customers, from large international corporates to SMEs and professionals.

More than 6 000 employees strive to daily deliver expert advice and accurate service to care about clients, drivers and vehicles.

Philippe Bismut, Arval's CEO states: "I am very proud of this achievement which has been made possible thanks to our employees in every country and I deeply congratulate and thank them. Even more important than this milestone, our ambition is to offer our clients best in class services always combining human and digital dimensions."

About Arval

Founded in 1989 and fully owned by BNP Paribas, Arval specialises in full service vehicle leasing. Arval offers its customers – large international corporates, SMEs and professionals – tailored solutions that optimise their employees' mobility and outsource the risks associated with fleet management. Expert advice and service quality, which are the foundations of Arval's customer promise, are delivered in 28 countries by over 6,000 employees. Arval's total leased fleet adds up to 1,000,000 vehicles throughout the world.

Arval is a founding member of the Element-Arval Global Alliance, the longest standing strategic alliance in the fleet management industry and the worldwide leader with 3 million vehicles in nearly 50 countries. Within BNP Paribas, Arval belongs to the Retail Banking core activity.
